

Guatemala

February 2015

Dear Friends,

Buenas!! Our anticipation and excitement grows with every passing day which brings us one day closer to Guatemala! This past month has been a flurry of activity as we prepare to move in a few weeks. Jonathan has been to and returned from Guatemala City, where he successfully secured a home in a safe area. Last week our shipment was loaded and is now on its way. It should arrive in about 4 weeks. We are so thankful for the way the Lord is blessing and working out every detail of this process, for His glory!

We are grateful for the blessing of snow! The kids have enjoyed watching the snow fall and playing in it, as it is likely that last snow they will see for quite a while.

The last pieces of the puzzle are finally coming together. We are still awaiting a couple of documents that we need before we can depart. These documents are from the Guatemalan consulates here in the United States and will allow us to apply for permanent residency in Guatemala. Obtaining residency means that we will not have to complete any further paperwork to stay in the country. What a blessing that will be! Please pray that the remaining documents will come quickly.

It is necessary that we begin language school as soon as we arrive in Guatemala, but we do not have the funding to do so. We have received a portion, but the total cost remaining is $15,744. Can you help us? Please pray that this need can be met within the next month so we can begin language school without any delays.

Donations can be sent to:

We received 100% of all donations that are sent in our name.

Hasta la próxima! Our next letter will, Lord willing, greet you all the way from Guatemala!

Thank you for your prayers & support as we partner for this great missionary endeavor.

Serving together,

Jonathan & Joanna Liggett
