

Guatemala

September 2014

Dear Friends,

This is an exciting month for us as we begin travel again! We will be at the BBFI National Fellowship meeting to complete the final steps of our field change. God has blessed us and allowed us to book some new churches to present the field of Guatemala this fall. We are thankful! Please be in prayer that they will partner with us through financial support.

Preparation mode is still in full effect and we have been very busy packing, preparing and working on residency paperwork. Many decisions must be made in the coming months as we prepare to leave for Guatemala in January. Most of those decisions (where to live, what vehicle we will have and where to attend language school) are based on the financial needs that must be met by January.

It must be stressed that in order for us to make this move in January we need assistance in two areas, shipping costs and language school. First, we will be shipping a container and a vehicle to Guatemala. This option is a great deal cheaper than purchasing new furniture and vehicle upon our arrival. The total cost for the move is $8,250. Second, we will start language school immediately after arriving in country. The total cost for Joanna and I to attend a year of school will be $18,000. Please pray that we can raise these costs before leaving in January.
